

Workshop Venue

Conservatorio Statale di Musica «F. Venezzes»
Corso del Popolo, 241 - Rovigo
(Entrance from Via Pighin)

Working languages

The working language of the conference is English.
Translation from/to Italian is available only for the opening session.

Attendance and registration

Attendance is free of charge. However, registration is mandatory. Attendees can register by sending an email to ciga@unipd.it or lacour@ivry.cnrs.fr

Information

For further information, please contact the Organising Committee at ciga@unipd.it or check the CIGA website at www.ciga.unipd.it

The workshop is co-organised under the patronage of

and in Association with of

The workshop is supported by:

And by Fondazione
Cassa di Risparmio di Padova e Rovigo

CENTRO INTERDIPARTIMENTALE DI RICERCA E SERVIZI
PER LE DECISIONI
GIURIDICO-AMBIENTALI E LA CERTIFICAZIONE
ETICA D'IMPRESA - CIGA

CENTRE D'ETUDES SUR LA
COOPERATION JURIDIQUE
INTERNATIONALE

UMR 6262 CNRS
Université de Rennes 1

The world is our inspiration

NanoNorma Project (ANR)

www.nanonorma.org

International and Interdisciplinary Seminar

Normative pluralism & Nanotechnologies

*L'internormativité dans la régulation
des nanotechnologies*

Rovigo, Italy, 3 & 4 June 2010

P R O G R A M M E

Thursday June, 3rd, 2010 - Morning

9h30-10h30

Welcome and opening speeches

FAUSTO MERCHIORI, Mayor of Rovigo

TIZIANA MICHELA VIRGILI, President of the Province of Rovigo

ANTONIO FINOTTI, President, Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio
di Padova e Rovigo

RENZO TOVO, President, Consorzio Università Rovigo

VITTORIO DOMENICHELLI, Director, CIGA

STEPHANIE LACOUR, Scientific coordinator, NanoNorma

10h30-12h30

Roundtable :

"A variety of norms in the field of nanotechnologies"

- Legal normativity: requirements, aims and limits: a legal philosophy perspective.

ELENA PARIOTTI, University of Padova

- The normativity of nanotechnology: a sociological perspective.

LUIGI PELLIZZONI, University of Trieste

- Technical standards in the field of nanotechnologies.

FRANCK VIOLET, Université catholique de Lyon - NanoNorma

- What is a nano object? On the relations between science and technology towards objects in the nano scale.

ANDREA BONACCORSI, University of Pisa

Chairman: PHILIPPE GALIAY, European Commission

Afternoon

14h30-17h30

Roundtable: "How the multiple norms may impact nanotechnologies?"

- The role of standardisation in the creation of markets for nanoproducts.

AURÉLIE DELEMARLE, ESIEE

- The economic impact of norms in the nanotechnology sector: where do we stand?

BÉATRICE DUMONT & DANIELE BENEZECH,
Université Rennes 1, CREM-CNRS.

- The future of Nanotechnologies in public Debates and social Protests. What does it mean to call to revolt against Science?
- FRANCIS CHATEAURAYNAUD, EHESS - Groupe de Sociologie Pragmatique et Réflexive

Chairman: JACQUELINE ALLAN, Working Party on Nanotechnology, OCDE

Friday, June 4th

Morning

9h30-12h30

Roundtable:

"Exploiting the resources of internormativity to answer the questions raised by nanotechnologies"

- Sorcerers of law and new technologies - Magic and poison.
GEERT VAN CALSTER, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven
- Normative Pluralism and responsibility of firms in the fields of nanotechnologies.
Can the solutions of the jurists be find in something else than law?
GUILLAUME CANSELIER, CNRS-CECOJI - NanoNorma
- Is social normativity suitable to frame Nanotechnology developments? The case of the french public debate on Nanotechnology.
SOLANGE MARTIN, French Minister for Environment-ADEME

Chairman : PIERRE-BENOÎT JOLY, INRA IFFRI

Afternoon

14h30-16h30: General Discussion

Chairman: GARY MARCHANT, Lincoln Professor of Emerging Technologies, Law & Ethics, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law

16h30-20h30: Touring in Padova